

IN RE. PRICES

Last week we advertised PRICE REDUCTIONS, naming a large number of staple articles the prices of which we voluntarily reduced to meet the changed industrial conditions. We want now to say that as fast as manufacturers lower their prices, the same benefits will be passed along to our customers.

Our friends can always feel assured that the prices quoted at our counters are the lowest possible—market conditions considered.

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Belle at Law, a pretty black mare that has been racing very successfully at fairs in southern New England this fall, has been sold by a group of local men that have owned her for a year past. Belle at Law has been cleaning up this season, winning races at Kingston, Norwich, Brooklyn and other places. In Wednesday's racing at Brocton, Belle at Law took first money in the race in which she was entered and set a new mark of 2:13 for herself.

She has been racing under the entry of C. H. Michaels, landlord of the Danielson inn and one of her owners. The local owners sold Belle at Law this week for a good price and she has since been resold at $250. Good horsemen say that it is not at all unlikely that she will lower her mark of 2:10 before the end of the present racing season. Belle at Law is only five years old and is rated sound as a dollar.

A first dividend has been declared by the Danielson Development association. This is the concern that was organized here last winter for the purpose of bringing new industries into Danielson. That its programme has been successfully put into operation is attested by the presence of the Peco Manufacturing company. The Danielson Development association applied the funds for the purchase of the property on Furnace street which has been remodeled and enlarged to house an industry that is now engaged in active operations and doing a splendid business.

Killingly's hunters will be out in field and brush early as the light will let many of them this (Friday) morning for the first day's sport of the season with dog and gun. Game birds are said to be quite plentiful in some sections hereabouts, notwithstanding that last winter was unusually severe. This is the first hunting season since the war which the shooting of partridge has been permitted. The law is off on these birds today.

The body of George Young, 13, who died at the Norwich State Hospital Wednesday evening, was brought here Thursday in charge of Undertaker L. E. Kennedy. Mr. Young had been a resident of the town of Killingly for a great many years and his death was a great loss to the community. His health began to fail rapidly had for a considerable period been engaged as a street cleaner here in Danielson. His home was in South Killingly, where he lived alone. It is said that he was a lively demand for apples to turn into cider. Miss Young engaged here on turning out the juice are having a big run of business, which promises to continue as long as apples are obtainable for running through the presses.

In printing the list of cases on the criminal calendar of the superior court there was an official error in the case of the state vs. Longo. This case should have been listed the State vs. Ignazio Longo, not Augustus Longo, as appears on the official calendar. The error is listed for trial at the October term of the superior court.

Next Friday a representative of the quartermaster's department at Hartford will come to Danielson to make an inventory of all the state property kept at the state armory here for the equipment of C company, State Guard. Similar inspections of State Guard property are being made at armories throughout the state. In some cases the equipment is not being issued again, but boxed for shipment to Hartford. Whether that will be the case with C company's equipment was not known here on Friday.

Hearty praise was heard Thursday of the first number of the entertainment course arranged by Leo J. L'Homme post of the American Legion. The Harpwood ensemble made a very pleasing literary company, with Nellie Zimmer, Ethel Zimmer and Louise Harris as harpists and Miss Ethel Zimmer as piano soloist and the organist. The legion members were being striving to make the course of entertainments a success and have received encouragement from the public.

Officials here are sounding the customary warnings against carelessness in the handling of fires of leaves and brush, now so common every day and evening throughout the town. It is suggested that burning of leaves, especially, be not undertaken on windy days and that fires of leaves started in the evening should be closely watched and thoroughly drenched with water before they are left for the night. Serious loss through such fires spreading to adjoining properties may be caused if there is negligence in watching over them.

The elections who were in session on Thursday, organizing for the year's work of the town clerk and registrars will have a busy day on Saturday if all of the to-be-made elections put in an appearance and desire to qualify. The officials are to be in session from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. and will be able to dispose of a good many cases during that period. Other opportunities will be given to qualify on the 13th and 19th. Practically all of the applicants to be made are women.

The closing down of textile plants in this territory has caused some moving about from one village to another by families, but here is not much of this, as textile workers here have that condition as they are in Killingly at the present time and little is to be gained by moving about.

The temperature dropped to 29 degrees in Danielson during the early hours of Thursday morning, when there was a killing frost.

CONQUERS RHEUMATISM

It is an established fact that one teaspoonful of Rheuma taken once a day for a very short time has driven all the pain and agony from thousands of racked, crippled and despairing rheumatics.

While powerful, gratifying and quick acting Rheuma contains no narcotics, is absolutely harmless, and must give lasting and assured relief, its cost small as it is, will be refunded. The magic name has reached nearly every hamlet, and there are hundreds of druggists who can tell you of the good it has done in some of the very worst cases.

If you are tortured with rheumatism or sciatica you can get a bottle of Rheuma from Lee & Osgood Co. for not more than 75 cents, with the understanding that if it does not rid you of rheumatic suffering your money will be cheerfully returned.
